A Big Fire in Boston.

The Loss Will Reach Nearly Ten Million Dollars.

UNCONTROLLABLE FOR HOURS.

Fire Engines Called from Surrounding Towns to Fight the Conflagration. Large Fire-Proof Buildings Fall an Easy Prey to the Devouring Element. About Two Hundred Firms Burned Out—One Fireman Seriously Injured.

BOSTON, Nov. 29.—The first general alarm sent out in Boston since the "big fire" was rung Thursday morning for a fire which started in a building occupied by Brown, Durrell & Company, on Bedford street, and which proved to be in a twinkling more than the first, second and third detachments could readily handle.

The first alarm was sounded at 8:15, and the building in which the fire started, always thought to be fire-proof, burned like a tinder box, and the flames rose hundreds of feet into the air. A second alarm was rung in at 8:30, and when the apparatus responded to this more was needed. A little after 9 o'clock a third alarm was sent out, and in half an hour there was issued a general alarm, which brought apparatus from Cambridge, Somerville and Chelsea.

From the building of Brown, Durrell & Company, where the fire caught, it spread across the street and back through the burning building into Chauncey street. In a few minutes it had extended along Chauncey street, on the left hand side, eating into the building next to it on the south, occupied by Cluett, Koon & Company, and in less than ten minutes was forcing its way through the next stone building, occupied by Williams & Company, on the next corner south.

From the other side it took hold almost at once upon the buildings on Rowe place at the lower end. The wind favored the supposition that the whole south cove and the wholesale district was doomed. On the east side of Chauncey street the buildings, all of them mammoth structures, were occupied as wholesale houses in the dry goods and fancy goods trade, and every effort was made to keep them from igniting.

At the intersection of Rowe place with the great building of Claffin, Larabee & Company, a number of engines were massed holding the fire gallantly in check until the big stone building of S. Williams & Company, on Chauncey street and Rowe place ignited, when, finding a fierce conflagration in their rear they had to hurry up Rowe place to save, if possible, the long granite block on the west side of Chauncey street. This effort was futile, and the fire stole across.

Just before this, while a small army of firemen were striving to save Chauncey street, the hot air generated by the fire raging in the rear blew out the entire glass front of No. 72 Chauncey street, occupied by Wright Brothers, dealers in skins and furs. Firemen were in the building with a line of hose and were literally blown out into the street. One of them, named Manning, was cut and torn in a frightful manner. His eyes were forced out of his head.

At 10:40 a. m. the massive Wellington building at Chauncey and Bedford streets caught. The building was occupied by Pierce & Company, Lawrence & Company, and other dry goods commission firms. The building was flooded with water. In this building was located the big lace concern of Shoniger, Moses & Company; William Bloom & Company, woolens; George F. Sears, Coffin, Altman & Company and several other large firms, while on the Avon place corner was located the Mount Vernon National bank. Farley, Harvey & Company's gentlemen's furnishing establishment on Chauncey street was in flames shortly before 11 o'clock.

At 11:30 the fire was well in hand, and continued wholly to the block on the corner of Chauncey and Bedford streets, and that opposite to the westward, occupied by Morse, Larabee & Company, George P. Frost & Company, and Farley, Harvey & Company.

Up to that hour the following named firms had been burned out: Nos. 69 and 71 Bedford street, Brown, Durrell & Company, Woonsocket Rubber company, and Jordan Marsh & Company's store rooms.

No. 90 Bedford street, Lampson & Hubbard, hatters.

No. 59 Bedford street, Taylor Brothers, wholesale clothing dealers.

No. 57 Bedford street, Walker & Stetson, collars and shirts; George T. Quinn, shirts.

Corner of Bedford and Chauncey streets, Smith, Hogg & Gardner, cotton goods, agents for the Tremont and Suffolk mills; Lamson & Company, Sawyer Manufacturing company.

No. 76 Bedford street, Joseph Ellis, collars and cuffs; Myer & Rosenfeld, underwear.

No. 72 Chauncey street, Sanborn, Hamm & Company, carpets and oil cloths; William Keith, jewelry.

No. 76 Bedford street, S. Lucher, clothing.

No. 80 Bedford street, Ewing Brothers, notions.

No. 82 Bedford street, S. Williams, cotton and woolen goods; Bridgman & Company, woolen goods; W. S. Strong & Company, woolens; Silver Lake company; H. F. Allen and R. J. Ford, commission merchants; Arnold Constable & Company, of New York; P. Gross, agent; Rothchild Brothers; Thomas Bell & Company, of Belfast, Me.; J. E. Worth, agent.

No. 1 Rowe Place, A. S. Morrison & Brother, jerseys and yarn; Walker, Stetson & Sawyer, cotton goods.

No. 8 Rowe Place, Claffin & Larabee, cotton; Henry C. Davis & Son.

No. 2 Rowe Place, A. Cohen & Company, ladies' cotton underwear; Isaac Simon, trunks and bags.

The geography of the fire is as follows: Starting in the six-story building owned by Jordan, Marsh & Company, and occupied by Brown, Durrell & Company, dry goods dealer at Bedford and Kingston streets, it spread to the shoe and leather exchange building, another large granite structure adjoining on Bedford street; thence across Bedford street to the corner; thence across Kingston street, and along Bedford to Chauncey street, where it was stopped in the store of Farley, Harvey & Company, the upper stories of which were burned.

Three stores along Chauncey street toward Summer were burned. On the south side of Bedford street the flames jumped across Kingston street from Brown, Durrell & Company's to a big sandstone building owned by F. L. Ames and occupied by Taylor Brothers, and this was consumed. The great granite building known as the Nevins block, at the corner of Chauncey street, was the next victim for the flames, and the entire block clear around Rowe place to Kingston street, was consumed.

Crossing Chauncey street the fire soon had a good hold on all the stores which are enclosed in Exeter place, a small street running from Harrison avenue to Chauncey street. Here the firemen got control. At Rowe place the fire was partially checked from going toward Essex street, but quickly moved toward the opposite side to the immense Allen and Larabee buildings occupying the square between Bedford street, Harrison avenue extension and Exeter place, at which point their further progress was checked.

The loss is estimated at $10,000,000. The fire raged for six hours, and the burned district extends over two acres of ground, which was covered with structures of the best class. The fire was first seen bursting from the top of the Brown building, at Bedford and Kingston streets. It was over the elevator shaft, and probably originated in the shaft. The blaze was discovered by a letter carrier, who notified a policeman. The officer turned in the alarm at the same box from which the great fire of 1872 was sounded. The latter fire started at Kingston and Summer streets.

This fire, coming as it does on top of the great blaze at Lynn, is a crushing blow to many of the smaller insurance companies, and it is not at all unlikely that it will cause the suspension of not a few of them.

Brown, Durrell & Company, carried goods in stock to the value of upwards of $800,000, and the stock will be a total loss. Insurance to the amount of $678,000 was carried on this stock.

S. B. Taylor, hats and caps, were insured for $75,000; loss $100,000.

T. G. Carrall & Company, small wares, insured $50,000.

Walker, Stetson, Sawyer & Company, hosiery jobbers, loss about $250,000; insurance, $200,000.

On the Allen building the insurance is $150,000; the value of the building, $450,000.

O. H. Sampson & Company and John B. Smith have about $70,000 insurance.

J. F. V. Winne, 10 Central street, has an insurance of $75,000.

There are about 200 firms burned out, and one hundred agents of New York and western firms have had their headquarters destroyed.

The seventy-nine insurance companies known to be interested carry an aggregate insurance of $2,600,000 on the burned property.

Two firemen, Daniel Buckley and Frank P. Loker, have been missing since early yesterday morning. They were last seen on the Brown-Durrell building.

Several firemen who saw them on the building report an explosion of hot air and their own narrow escape, and are of the opinion that the men were overcome and unable to save themselves.

The origin of the fire is not definitely known, but is generally attributed to the electric wires.

About 11 a. m. it seemed as if the tenement houses on Columbia street must go and their occupants began to move out in great hurry and confusion.

The scene was one of great bewilderment. Several families fled, but the flames did not reach their abodes and they afterward moved back.

Police Sergeant Kimball, Patrolman Maynes and ex-Councilman Barry rescued six women and a man from the upper floor of the building at Kingston and Bedford streets. The seven persons lay unconscious on the floor, overcome by smoke. The three rescuers, learning of the fact that all the occupants of the building had not escaped, groped their way up the stairs through the thick smoke, and after making several journeys, saved all that were in peril. Just as the last woman was carried out the fire took complete possession of the building.

Officers Maynes and Benjamin also rescued Fireman Whiting from No. 800 Chauncey street, after he had been caught and buried under a falling wall. They were badly burned, and Whiting is terribly injured.

Fourteen firemen were knocked down in Kingston street by fragments of a falling wall, but all escaped serious injury. About a dozen firemen and policemen are at the hospitals suffering from lacerations, bruises and broken limbs.

An American Banquet

Takes Place at the Kaiserhof in Boston.

MINISTER PHELPS PRESIDED.

He Eulogized the Late Minister Pendleton, and Said That the United States Was the Only Nation in the World Where the Poor Have a Home—Toasting the Emperor.

BERLIN, Nov. 29.—A grand American banquet was given at the Kaiserhof yesterday evening at which there was 250 guests. Minister Phelps presided, and at his right were Count Herbert Bismarck and Mrs. Phelps. On his left were Prince Radziwill and Miss Phelps. Among the guests present were Professors Mommson and Cuntiers, and Consul Edwards and other prominent Americans, with their wives.

Mr. Phelps highly eulogized the late Minister Pendleton, and in toasting President Harrison alluded to the similarity of the virtues and traditions of Germany and America. "The youths and maidens from America studying in Germany," he said, "had never been tainted with the breath of scandal." The material wonders of America, he declared, "defy the possibilities, and the United States is proud of being the only nation yet born where the poor have a home, and were 60,000,000 of free men prize education, love their country and worship God."

In toasting the emperor, Mr. Phelps said: "The Germans are as happy as we are in having the same traditions and virtues and a great ruler who illustrates their simple industries, able, man-loving and God-fearing."

Count Herbert Bismarck offered his sincere thanks for the welcome given to him, which, he said, made him feel that he was not quite a stranger to the great American nation.

Serious Flood Damages.

WATERBURY, Conn., Nov. 29.—The storm last night swelled Little brook, under East and South Main streets here, and filled twenty store cellars, causing damage to goods to the amount of $4,000. The Naugatuck valley, from Thomaston to Birmingham, is turned into a sea by the rise in the Naugatuck river. The Naugatuck railroad is covered in many places. A bad wash-out at Seymour badly delayed passenger trains. The bridge over the creek at Union City was washed away. The Dunham dam at Naugatuck gave way at 4 o'clock. There is also a bad wash-out on the Meriden road in this city.

An Ex-Sheriff Assigns.

WAYNESBURG, Pa., Nov. 29.—Early this morning ex-Sheriff D. A. Spragg made an assignment for the benefit of his creditors. This involved W. T. Loutz, cashier of the Farmers and Drovers National bank, and Dr. D. Braden and several other prominent citizens. The true situation of affairs is not yet fully known, but the liabilities of those mentioned amounts to thousands of dollars. The directors of the bank have assured their depositors that the bank will not be affected and is able to pay every dollar of its liabilities. The men involved are said to have made unprofitable investment in a cattle ranch in the west.

Somebody Surely Mistaken.

ATLANTA, Nov. 29.—The Constitution makes public a sensation in regard to the record of W. R. Dale, pastor of the Seventh Baptist church, this city. Two citizens have identified Dale as J. O. H. Nuttall, formerly a printer and silversmith at Charlotte and Dallas, N. C., who was charged with deserting his family and eloping with a young girl. On the other hand, men who knew Nuttall, say that Dale is not the same man. Mr. Dale's brother preachers are looking into the matter.

Steamer Wrecked on a Lake.

CHICAGO, Nov. 29.—The steamer Calumet, coal laden, from Buffalo for Duluth, Capt. O. W. Greene commanding, sprung a leak on Wednesday morning and last night when opposite Evanston, near this city, the captain was compelled to beach her. The Evanston life saving crew with much difficulty rescued the crew of eighteen men. The Calumet is owned by Buffalo parties and was loaded with 1,600 tons of coal. She will in all probability be a total wreck.

Proved an Alibi.

BELLEFOONTE, Pa., Nov. 29.—The man arrested at Vanderbilt last night on suspicion of being the murderer of Clara Pierce, near Grauthaus, has been released, having proved an alibi. A body of men are searching for a tramp suspected of being the murderer. Miss Pierce was a pretty girl of 18. Her body was found in the road with three bullet holes through it, and the inquest revealed the fact that the girl had been outraged and then shot.

Missed the Target.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Nov. 29.—William H. Edwards, a private in the Morris Guards, was accidentally shot by Lieut. Russell G. Ring, while the guards were shooting at a target yesterday afternoon. His recovery is doubtful. Ring was endeavoring to push down the breech when the gun went off. Edwards is 28 years old and unmarried.

Drowned in the Ohio.

WHEELING, W. Va., Nov. 29.—Yesterday evening Mr. Mack Goff and his 16-year-old son were unloading a wagon of cinders at the river bank. The bank gave way and Goff and his son were thrown into the Ohio river and drowned.

Residence Burglarized.

WORCESTER, Mass., Nov. 29.—Henry R. Stowell's house in Athol, was entered last night by burglars, who broke open a safe and obtained between $4,000 and $5,000 in cash and securities.

MONTANA'S MUDDLE.

The Republican Leaders Think They Have Found a Way Out of It.

HELENA, Mont., Nov. 29.—Republican leaders Thursday were in consultation with several eminent lawyers, and believe they have found the way to extricate themselves from the muddle in which they find themselves. It is stated that Governor Toole was not legally empowered to name a place in which the legislature should assemble; that the only state officer who possesses such authority is State Auditor Kenney, and that official personally notified the members of the house to meet at another place than that selected by Governor Toole.

When only Republicans responded he, as authorized by the constitution, called the roll and declared the house assembled and ready for business. In a lengthy legal opinion the Republicans of the senate are advised to wait no longer for the recalcitrant Democratic members, but go ahead with their business. The lieutenant governor, the lawyers say, in their opinion, must, as the presiding officer, assume the responsibility of casting the deciding vote that is necessary to constitute a quorum.

Lieutenant Governor Richards said last night he believed the suggestion outlined in the opinion is the only solution of the difficulty, and unless the Democrats awaken to their duties he will break the deadlock. The Republicans are also considering the impeachment of Governor Toole on the ground that without a shadow of authority he hired a hall, caused locks to be placed on all the doors and placed guards for the purpose of keeping out the contesting Republicans from Silver Bow, knowing that without these members the Democrats could do as they pleased.

HURLEY BANK ROBBERY.

It Was the Result of a Long and Deep Laid Plot.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 29.—Dr. J. C. Reynolds, president of the bank at Hurley, where the $40,000 robbery took place, said to a reporter that the most astonishing feature of the new developments in the case, is the claim made by the detectives that the robbery is the result of a conspiracy which was going on for at least eight months. For two years it has been a matter of common knowledge on the range that a large amount of money was sent once a month to pay off miners.

The officers claim to have information from one of the gang who came to Hurley last March fully equipped to rob the bank, and knowing the combination of the safe. This fellow claims to have hung around several days, and to have seen the money arrive and go to the bank. That night he and his confederates were ready, but the cashier did not go down town. They watched him prepare for bed, and then decided to abandon an attempt at robbery. The leader said that he knew that with the cashier in the bank robbery would probably include murder, and he drew the line at the latter crime.

The officers say that this gang did not finally commit the robbery, and the leader does not know who did, but he will tell who furnished him with the combination of the safe when he expected to crack it. The officers have given me various other important pieces of information which show a deep laid plot, and I shudder when I think of the danger that my brother, the cashier, has been in for nearly a year. Under some circumstances the robbery might have meant ruin to the bank.

HON. W. J. HENDRICK aspires to represent Fleming County in the proposed constitutional convention. The people of Fleming will not make a mistake if they choose him for their delegate.

KENTUCKY sends but three new men to the Fifty-first Congress—Ellis, of the Second district; Paynter, of the Ninth, and Wilson of the Tenth. We are catching on to the wisdom of keeping a good fit as long as it wears well. Mr. Carlisle, who enters upon his seventh consecutive term, is the Nestor of the delegation in length of service, as well as in value of counsel. —Louisville Times.

The country is filled with disappointed "pie-hunters," and their grumblings and growlings are growing louder each day. At Jeffersonville, Indiana, a week or so ago, the Union League, a Republican organization which supported Harrison, burned him in effigy, with all the campaign banners and mottoes used by the club during the campaign which ended in his election. Straws show which way the current is drifting.

The night of the late election the returns were exhibited by the Washington Post by a stereopticon arrangement. It is said that between returns a picture of Harrison was exhibited and was received with hisses and other marks of decided disfavor. A picture of Mr. Cleveland followed and evoked tumultuous cheers. The Harrison picture was returned with the same result as before, and then the Cleveland picture followed, and the crowd cheered more than before. It is fortunate for the Republicans there is no Presidential election this fall. They are too badly demoralized over the spoils to face an enemy.

Here's a pointer for our Republican high tariff friends. Sometime ago, the Dry Goods Economist, of New York, sent out circulars to the commercial and manufacturing firms and institutions engaged in the various branches of the woolen industry, asking the recipients to indicate the basis upon which they were willing that foreign wool should be admitted into this country. Blanks were provided for answers indicating preference for an advalorem tariff and for the free admission of the fabric. In its last issue, the Economist publishes the names of seventy-five firms and companies which have answered specifically, fifty-nine of which are unqualifiedly in favor of free wool, the remaining nineteen being in favor of an advalorem tariff, under which the duties would be collected upon the wool alone, the dirt and grease escaping taxation. Further replies are to be received, and in this connection the Economist says in its editorial columns: "If the surprising preponderance of free wool advocates continues among the replies yet to come, the pessimists who now freely express the conviction that no reform of the wool tariff in the near future is possible, will see a great light."

Hard on Harrison.

The Lexington Transcript a few days ago, referring to the appointment of Mr. Thomas C. McDowell as Collector of this district, to succeed the late Colonel Goodloe, said: "The Swope wing of the party was, of course, hot in the collar and the breach that existed is again widened." In another column the same paper published the following:

A well-known Republican, whose parents before him were Republicans, dropped into the Transcript office last night and, cracking his fist down on the counter with a crack that shook the lamp off the table of the religious editor, shouted: "Do you know that President Harrison is playing h—ll? Yes, sir; playing h—ll!" "Hush! hush!" implored the religious editor. "That's wicked." "Yes, sir, I mean what I say. He is tearing the Republican party of Kentucky into tatters. He wants to destroy it. D—n a man who don't know how to heal a breach." "What breach do you mean?" inquired the religious editor. "Oh, nothing, I forgot," he replied, as he darted out at the door. "The religious editor has no idea yet what the man was excited about."

Kentucky women cannot be excelled for grit. —Paris Record.

It is a fortunate thing this country is blessed with some grand moguls, who think the earth was made for their own especial use. They can say and do as they please because they happen to possess a few of the almighty dollars, but if any poor devil dare to assert their soul is their own, or make any remarks unless in a cringing or fawning way towards their high mightiness, there is trouble in the camp. Thank fortune we ain't built that way.

Ye gods and little fishes, but the Republican's correspondent is a classical and all-around thing-gum-a-bob. Card of Thanks.—I desire to return to the good people of Helena my sincere thanks for their many acts of kindness to my daughter, Annie, during her illness. This is the only means I have of showing how deeply I appreciate those kindnesses. Very truly, ALEXANDER HUMMELS.

Kind Words for the "Maysville Baptist." The Times is in receipt of the first number of the Maysville Baptist, a monthly paper published in the interest of the Baptist Church of that city, with Rev. W. J. E. Cox as editor and Mr. W. LaRue Thomas as business manager. The paper is on the order of "Our Record," which was conducted by Mr. Cox, while pastor of the church at Georgetown. It is a bright and interesting little paper, and the Times wishes it all the prosperity that is hoped for it by its clever editor. —Georgetown Times.

Of Interest to School Trustees. The Court of Appeals recently decided a case of importance to school officers. A school house in Franklin County was condemned by the County Superintendent, and the Trustees levied a tax to build a new one without submitting the question to a vote of the people of the district. One of the tax-payers got an injunction restraining the collection of the tax. It was fought through the Circuit Court and the Court of Appeals, each time being decided in favor of the Trustees.

ACCIDENT ON THE C. AND O.

An Engineer Killed—Narrow Escape of Conductor, and Brakeman.

All C and O. westbound trains except the accommodation were several hours behind time yesterday. The delay was caused by an accident that happened the evening before, about one mile east of Huntington, W. Va. A special says the bridge over Guyan river at that point was thrown from the piers, throwing the engine, tender and three cars from the track. The engine and tender fell into river.

Engineer, R. V. Freeman, was killed. Fireman Cundiff and Conductor Cunningham were considerably bruised. The fireman extricated himself and swam to the shore. He saw the conductor was about to drown and went to him, saving him; then he rescued the brakeman, and then recovered the body of the engineer. One of the cars jumped the track, breaking the connections of the span, which is said to be the cause of the disaster.

In a recent ruling the Kentucky Court of Appeals decided that the law imposes on a railroad company "the duty of keeping the crossings over its road and the approaches thereto within the right of way in a good and safe condition for public travel; and this whether the highway was located after the railroad was constructed or before."

Rev. W. J. E. Cox officiated at the marriage of Mr. George Euston and Miss Mary Fowler Wednesday evening. The ceremony was solemnized at the home of Mr. Cox. The BULLETIN was in error yesterday in stating that Rev. Thomas Hanford officiated. Friends of the contracting parties had this correction made, and the reverend gentlemen are not aware it is to appear.

The Clermont Packing Company, of Amelia, Clermont County, O., put up over 500,000 cans of tomatoes the past season, and has already marketed nearly all of these goods. There was some talk of establishing a similar enterprise here last spring, but Maysville men of means didn't have the courage to risk their cash in the business—a business that is proving profitable elsewhere, and that would help along the industrial growth of our city.

MAYSVILLE DIVISION, U. R. K. of P., will give a big bazaar and fair Christmas week. The K. of P. fair at Ripley last Christmas attracted hundreds to that city and the one to be given here will do as much for this city. It will be conducted on a big scale. Preparations are being made already. A committee to solicit contributions commenced work Wednesday. Merchants and public generally should encourage the Knights in every way possible.

FLEMINGSBURG will soon have electric lights. The Times-Democrat summarizes the contract as follows: "The city is to build an engine-house and the Electric Light Company is to put in a 35-horse power boiler and engine, dynamo, etc., of power sufficient to run all the lights needed. The company is to put up forty street lights of 25-candle power each, for which the council is to pay $15 per year per lamp, or a total of $600 per year. This calls for an all-night schedule for all dark hours. The city is to have a 90-day option on the purchase of the plant at figures as set down in the proposition which will make the cost of the plant, 40 street lights wired, 300 private lights etc., about $5,800. In case the city does not wish to do this, a private corporation of the citizens of Flemingsburg have the right to take it, and the Thompson-Houston Company guarantees that the controlling interest shall be held in Flemingsburg."

Says the Flemingsburg Times-Democrat: "It is understood that steel rails will be laid on the Maysville Division, K. C. R. R., between this and spring. The track from Maysville to Ewing is now of steel, leaving a gap of about 29 miles to be filled up. They have been taking up the steel rails now used on the main line and putting down heavier ones and will use the discarded rails on the Maysville Division."

Narrow Escape of a Former Citizen of Maysville

Captain Alex Powers, a former citizen of Maysville now engaged in the cigar business at Cincinnati, had a narrow escape from death yesterday. The Enquirer says: "He occupies a room over the waiting station at the end of the cable line. Early yesterday morning the building caught fire from the fire in the basement and was soon enveloped in flames. When the firemen arrived Captain Powers was discovered overcome by the smoke, and was rescued from the building in an unconscious condition. Burlesque and specialty, fun and beauty, reigned supreme at the theatre last night. The fact that this was to be the case seemed to have been intuitively felt by the patrons of the house, and they flocked to the feast by platoons and companies—almost by regiments—and before the orchestra had finished its tuneful overture the auditorium, balcony and galleries were filled, and the "standing room only" sign had been hung out. When the curtain rose it was upon as fine a stage setting as ever graced the opening of any show of the kind in this city. It was both gorgeous and beautiful and the beauty of the scenery was greatly added to by a stage full of handsome women, splendidly costumed and ready to proceed with the performance. The first part was entitled "Social Pleasures," and during its continuance the immense audience became widely enthusiastic at the features presented—a state of mind in which it continued until the final fall of the curtain. Seltzer's turn, which began the olio, took the house by storm, and was followed by one of the famous Morgan living pictures, "Phryne Before the Tribunal," a charming artistic representation. From this time on the pictures were alternated with the specialties, with excellent effect, and each was in turn warmly received. And they deserved the applause with which they were greeted. A burlesque on "The Old Homestead" closed the bill, in which nine of the principles were cast, including May Howard herself—Courier-Journal, Tuesday Nov. 26, 1889.

Foreigners Excluded.

France About to Take Such a Step.

A LAW ALREADY INTRODUCED.

Every Foreigner in France Subject to a Poll and Military Tax—A Mob of Women in Madrid—Destructive Fire in England—Other Foreign Dispatches.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—A bill now before the French chamber of deputies, regulating taxation, contains a clause which has aroused a great wave of popular excitement, although it has more partisans than opponents from its obvious character as an anti-Gorman measure and anti-Italian as well.

This clause proposes the imposition of a poll and military tax upon every foreigner residing in France, and, as though this were not enough to render France an undesirable residence for foreigners, it goes to the length of minimizing their opportunities for obtaining employment by imposing a tax upon every employer for each foreign employee in his service residing in France. Though many French employers have already refused to hire foreign labor, there are still a great many others who, through some reason, prefer them to Frenchmen, and these, together with the foreign element whose exclusion is sought, constitute the opposition to the measure.

A Mob of Women in Madrid.

MADRID, Nov. 29.—A man supposed to be "Jack the Ripper" was set upon by a crowd of women in the poorer quarter of this city yesterday, while he was in the custody of officers, who were removing him from the jail to the court room, where he was to be arranged on the charge of having recently committed a murder under circumstances resembling those of the Whitechapel murders in London. The crowd increased in numbers until it reached upwards of 500, mostly women, and it was only through the utmost exertions of the governor of Madrid and a strong force of gendarmes, who were summoned, that the prisoner's life was saved. As it was, he was so severely beaten that the services of a physician were necessary to restore him to a condition rendering the legal proceedings in his case possible.

Money Scarce in St. Petersburg.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 29.—The Servian government is endeavoring to negotiate a loan in St. Petersburg. There is said to be no difficulty as regards the sum required, but the rate asked is so unreasonably high even for Servian security, that the bargain is not likely to be concluded.

Our Minister's Thanksgiving.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—The United States minister held the usual thanksgiving reception at the American legation yesterday, entertaining a number of guests far in excess of the attendance on similar occasions in former years.

Miners Entombed by a Landslide.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—A tremendous landslide occurred at Seiftenberg, Brandenburg, yesterday, completely choking up two shafts and entombing a number of miners, whose rescue alive is doubtful.

Oh, What a Crime.

BERLIN, Nov. 29.—The editor of The Potsdam Zeitung is to be placed on trial on a charge of lese majesté in having stated in his paper that the kaiser recently rode in a second class cab.

Explosion in a Coal Mine.

Eight Thousand Men on a Strike.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—The dock laborers at Bristol began a strike yesterday which threatens to spread to the inclusion of other branches of labor. Already 8,000 men are out.

Minister Lincoln's Son Ill.

Half a Million Fire Loss.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—White's extensive drapery establishment at Aldershot was burned yesterday. Loss $500,000.

SERIOUS LANDSLIDE.

Railroad Travel Greatly Interfered With on the New York Central.

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 29.—The Troy local trains on the New York Central road were all delayed yesterday afternoon and last night by landslides at the clay embankment, just below the Troy iron works. At 10 o'clock yesterday morning the first slide occurred, the bank settling down over the east track. As soon as it was discovered the roadmaster put a gang of men to work. For a time they got on very well, but in the afternoon the bank began to come down in a big slide so fast that the men could not shovel it out.

Trains were stopped and for a time all traffic was done on this side of the river. The slide was the largest ever seen in this vicinity, and four frame houses on top were moved by the slide and one is in a dangerous position. Trains ran up as far as the iron works on the other side and transferred passengers. The men are busy working at the slide. There are fears of another slide if the rain continues. Great trouble is expected.

Reed's Supporters Meet.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—The New York Republican congressional delegation met at the Arlington hotel last night and discussed the speakership question. Sixteen of the nineteen members of the delegation favored Mr. Reed as their first choice. They met with the assurance, it is understood, from Mr. Reed that he did not desire any unwilling member of the delegation to be coerced into his support; but that he wanted a full and free discussion of his candidacy before final action was taken. The delegation, with the exception of Mr. Flood, will favor Mr. Reed for speaker in the caucus on Saturday night.

WORST STORM IN YEARS.

Light-House and Breakwater in Swept Away at Marquette—Elsewhere.

MARQUETTE, Mich., Nov. 29.—The harbor light house, on the outer end of the breakwater, and also two of the three crabs comprising the breakwater extension, built this summer, were swept away by the heavy seas yesterday. The storm was the severest known for years.

Six Inches of Snow on the Level.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., Nov. 29.—The first blizzard of the season struck this city yesterday. It has been snowing all day, with a cold northwest wind, and still snowing, with six inches on the level, and the thermometer way below freezing.

Snow in Georgia.

ROME, Ga., Nov. 29.—The first snow of the season fell here yesterday, but melted as it fell.

It was in his section that the remarkable blizzard prevailed during the first fifteen days of this month. He says the total loss of human life by that storm was thirty-five persons—thirty Mexican sheep herders and five American cowboys. Four of the latter have been found and buried.

FRESH FROM CENTRAL AMERICA.

William Astor Chandler Returns from His Hunt.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—William Astor Chandler has just arrived from a hunting expedition in Central East Africa. He is in splendid health and spirits, and says he made a journey not achieved by any other white man. He had an escort of 123 Zanzibars.

He started from Mombassa, went to Ingiri, where Capt. Dawney was killed, Massimani, Kibonota and Chagga and through the Masai country, and only once had trouble with the Masai, when they attempted to steal a rifle from one of his men. He says the men who accompanied Stevens revolted at Ingiri. They were afraid to advance or return. The route taken by Stanley he considers the wisest possible selection. Chandler left Zanzibar Nov. 3.

From Emin Pasha.

BRUSSELS, Nov. 29.—Emin Pasha has sent to the Belgian Anti-Slavery society a communication in which he thanks the society for its sympathy, and expresses regret for the loss of the Equatorial provinces. The injured Italians were taken to a hospital.
